President Martin's September Message:

Clerks: Working in Harmony

Dear Fellow Clerks,

Let me begin by saying Thank You! Thank you all for your support in allowing me to serve as President of this great Association. It is truly an honor and a privilege to serve you over the next year. All of you have become dear friends to me over the years and I will cherish that friendship for the rest of my life.

My goal is to work closely with the Officers, Board of Directors and the many many volunteers serving on our committees to make this Association the best it can be. My hope is to carry on the excellent job from past President Kim Worley as well as those great Presidents that served before her. My door is always open and I welcome your comments and suggestions.

I hope everyone had a great time at this year's Summer Academies in Cherokee. A great big thank you to Dora Moore and the Program and Education Committee for the fabulous job they did "PuttingThe Pieces" together for this Academy. I hope you had fun putting the puzzles together, an idea that went right along with the theme for this year's Academy. I'd also like to thank Janet Anderson and Cynthia Richardson for stepping up when we found out there was no Clerk from Cherokee to serve as Host. Without a doubt, we could not pull this off without our three best supporters: John Phelps and Athena Banks from the NCLM and Professor Fleming Bell from the School of Government. Thank you all from the bottom of my heart!

I would also like to thank our vendors for participating and supporting the NCAMC. Many of the vendors have supported the Association for years and are like "family." We welcomed the newcomers with open arms and hope they will come back. The IIMC continued their support of the Association and we especially appreciate Dyanne Reese, IIMC Past President for taking the time from her busy schedule to join us once again this year.

Thursday's Master Municipal Academy started off with a review of Parliamentary Procedures, a topic all Clerks' must know. The afternoon session provided tools to take back home and put to good use working more effectively with co-workers from different generations.

Friday's Sessions brought to light the Top 10 issues most important to the 21st Century Professional Clerk. Our own Professor Bell led this timely discussion as we all strive to do more with less as our cities and towns struggle with shrinking budgets. The ever popular 2013 Legislative Update finished up the morning. There were two afternoon sessions on topics that every Clerk deals with on some level. The NCLM Staff provided an excellent program on the laws and procedures surrounding Workers Compensation and Cherie Berry, NC Commissioner of Labor and Bill Best, NC Department of Labor ended the day with a workshop on OSHA reporting.

Following a full day of educational sessions, Clerks were treated to dinner followed by the amazing drama production of "Unto These Hills."

The Clerk's Annual Business Meeting was held on Saturday morning and the details of that meeting are covered in a separate article in this newsletter.

The Academy ended with an interactive session on Drop Box Technology. Clerks brought in laptops, iPads or tablets to set up Drop Box accounts and to examine applications needed to effectively use this valuable tool.

The Annual Banquet was held Saturday night. The meal was excellent as was the fellowship and entertainment. The 2013-14 Officers and Board of Directors were installed with the Oath being administered by Dyanne Reese, Past President of the IIMC and City Clerk for Savannah, GA.

I was no different than many of the Clerks before me, I was nervous! With lots of deep breaths and the smiling faces of the many family and friends in attendance, I made it through the night. Last year, I started thinking about my theme and it didn't take me long to decide on "Working in Harmony." As some of my closest friends know, my husband Jerry has played bluegrass music for years. About two years ago, I decided to take up a new hobby and am learning to play the mountain dulcimer, an instrument known for its "sweet music". To make "sweet music" musicians must play and sing in "Harmony" with one another. Each member has a clearly defined role to play and when those roles are played successfully you have beautiful music. As a Municipal Clerk – is that not what we do – Are we not the "Music Conductor" helping create the harmony with our Board members, our citizens, our co-workers and even among our fellow Clerks?

In closing, my pledge is to be the best President I can be and my challenge to you is to go out and "Work in Harmony" with EVERYONE you come in contact with and let's do our part in making our Communities and this Association a better place!

Clerks: Working in Harmony!

City of Lenoir: A “Cool” and “Growing” Place to Be

Shirley M. Cannon, MMC, NCCMC
Former District 10 Director

The City of Lenoir has experienced much success over the past several years namely being designated as a “Cool Community” by the Alliance of Innovation Group in 2012. Lenoir was chosen for this prestigious award for its Community Gardens which were also featured nationwide in Parade Magazine in August 2012.

The idea first originated with a group of local gardeners who asked the City Manager in 2009 for assistance in locating a plot of land to grow vegetables for the purpose of making donations to various food pantries in our community. As a result, the Beall Street gardens were formed and turned into a thriving, successful garden of 30 raised beds at the site of an abandoned playground owned by the City. These gardens later grew into a unique partnership among the gardeners, the City of Lenoir, and the local hospital, Caldwell Memorial. The goal of the partnership is to continue to grow food for those less fortunate as well as to educate the public about the importance of healthy eating to combat obesity in our community.

This innovative idea to help feed the hungry and assist people with choosing a healthier lifestyle led to the City to transform an abandoned industrial site into Unity Park and Community Gardens which are comprised of a 5.6 acre park, featuring 75 raised garden beds, a walking path, berry patch, and orchard with over 150 apple, pear, and plum trees.

Not to be outdone by adults, a 12 year-old student, Daniela Berry, an avid gardener herself, sought permission from her father who is the principal at one of our elementary schools, to create a garden plot for the students who attended the after school program. A 1,700 square foot plot of land and a slogan (“Plant a Row for the Hungry”) soon turned 30 young students into knowledgeable gardeners who learned how to tend their own garden beds from lessons given by Daniela.

From this young girl’s desire to help others, the small garden plot at Daniela’s school grew to five other county schools planting their own vegetable plots. Daniela is also featured on the cover of the August 2012 Parade Magazine article.

Lenoir continues to receive recognition from this amazing project, the most recent being featured on UNC-TV Black Issues Forum/Urban Farming: Food for Life in June by a panel of three residents on the success of the gardens. This informative and educational program may be viewed at <http://video.unctv.org/video/2365036029>. The segment on Lenoir is shown in the second half of the video.

So, if you ever have a “cool” idea that you are unsure of how to cultivate, just remind yourself that sometimes it only takes a small seed of faith to “grow” into a harvest for many. What is your community doing to be “cool” and “grow”?

Additional information about Lenoir and the Parade article may be found on our website at www.cityoflenoir.com.

Membership Directory and Annual Report Go Online

The 2013-14 annual budget for the NCAMC is much like the budgets we are dealing with in our cities and towns. Funds are tight! Last year's Finance Committee sharpened their pencils and reviewed the budget line item by line item to develop a budget that meets the needs of the Association but is also fiscally responsible.

The Executive Committee has recently reviewed the way we have traditionally distributed the Membership Directory. The traditional way of doing business which is to print the Directory, give them out at the Annual Academy and mail the remaining Directories not picked up, will cost the Association approximately $3,500. The Executive Committee believes this money can be better spent.

John Phelps, Recording Secretary/Treasurer was able to secure our Membership Directory a place on the NCLM's website, where the Directory can be accessed and printed if so desired at no charge to the Association. Once the Membership Directory goes live on the League's website, detailed instructions on accessing the directory will be provided. Stay tuned.

A small number of Directories will still need to be printed for those Clerks that don't have access to the internet and for the permanent record. The Board of Directors along with the Website Committee will be working with our website host to enhance and upgrade the NCAMC website. These enhancements will include a secured page in which to house this Directory. Thank you Deeda Harris, Town Clerk from Wake Forest for putting together this year's Membership Directory.

Already in place on the NCAMC website, is the 2012-13 Annual Report of the North Carolina Association of Municipal Clerks. The report is full of information about your Officers and Board of Directors and the events and activities of each of the Committees. Please go check out the report at www.ncamc.com. Many thanks to Kelly Baker, Deputy Clerk from Salisbury for putting together this year's annual report.
