Sabrena Reinhardt to Serve as Immediate Past President of NCAMC

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - December 18, 2025

Leland, NC — The North Carolina Association of Municipal Clerks (NCAMC) announces that Sabrena Reinhardt, MMC, NCCMC, Town Clerk for the Town of Leland, will serve as Immediate Past President for the 2025–2026 term.

As Immediate Past President, Reinhardt provides continuity, institutional knowledge, and guidance to the NCAMC leadership team, supporting smooth transitions and long-term organizational stability.

NCAMC's officer succession structure ensures experienced leaders guide the Association year by year. Reinhardt's 13 years of municipal and leadership experience and commitment to collaboration is invaluable in advancing NCAMC's mission of professional development, education, and networking for clerks statewide.

Reinhardt previously served as the President of NCAMC for the 2024-2025 term with the theme of "One Person Can Make a Difference."
